

Evaluating sources.

For each source described, identify ONE weakness and one strength. Briefly (1 sentence) explain why it's a strength or a weakness.

1. An autobiography of Qin Shihuangdi, written by the emperor just before his death.
2. An eye-witness account of the Battle of Thermopylae, written immediately after the battle by a foot soldier who was tending the horses.
3. A play about three Japanese marriages which was written and widely performed in Japan during the Classical period.
4. An account book kept by someone overseeing construction of the Great Wall, listing the prices of materials and salaries paid to workers.